in Laos, in the most very many & shocking cases, he nonetheless carefully cares for himself & the Pennedy administration by insisting reference to the one most obvious & central fact: Once K. became president he would have had the settlement Sch. says he wanted by a very simple expedient: withdrawing all U.S. air & military & support, the complete C.I.A. creature.
There was no need to wait in the with him & very reason - if A is telling the truth about the real failing of the Administration - of ending him & what he stood for. The fact was of the Administration is to do so costs irredeemable doubt on Sch's apologia for it, & on his historical integrity.
